JUNO REYES

Graphic and motion designer · Mexico City · Instagram: @overprint.sample

Juno Reyes designs posters, records, identities, and title sequences from a shared studio above a print shop in Colonia Obrera.

Services

Identity for cultural organizations
Posters and printed matter
Record sleeves
Title sequences and motion identity
Typeface design

Selected clients

Sótano 33
Discos Temblor
Canal Anillo
Festival Granizo
Taller Tinta Corrida
Museo del Cartel Provisional
Editorial Banqueta
Radio Azotea

Education

BA Graphic Design, Universidad del Norte de Coahuila (2013)

Experience

2019–now — Independent designer, Mexico City. Own studio, with a riso shared with Taller Tinta Corrida.

2016–2019 — Senior designer, Canal Anillo, Mexico City. On-air graphics for a public arts channel, including its 2018 rebrand.

2014–2016 — Designer, Estudio Barranca, Monterrey. Books and exhibition graphics for regional museums.

2013–2014 — Press assistant, Imprenta Lerma, Toluca. Ran an offset press and learned why designers get yelled at.

Recognition

2025 — Bienal Latinoamericana del Cartel Provisional, gold, for the Sótano 33 season.

2024 — Tezontle selected for the Tipos Latinos open-font showcase.

2023 — Guest teacher, Taller de Impresión Experimental, Oaxaca.